U.S. Capital Christmas Tree- Juried Exhibition: Deadline: Monday, September 7, 2009 Every year since 1970, a Christmas tree has been presented to the United States Congress from a national forest and is known as "The People's Tree". This year, for the first time, the tree will be a gift from Arizona. In honor of this occasion, the Apache-Sitgreaves National Forest, Arizona Commission on the Arts and Arizona Art Alliance have collaborated to host a statewide, juried art exhibition to select an official artwork to represent the 2009 National Capitol Christmas Tree (CCT). The artwork will ultimately be exhibited in "The Tree Gallery" on the Washington Mall in DC, as part of the national permanent collection featuring previous CCT winners. Theme "Arizona's Gift from the Grand Canyon State" Artists are encouraged to consider the theme to conceptualize the vision of a 65+ foot tall Arizona Christmas Tree destined for the Nation's Capitol.
